

Passaic County Technical Institute

“Passaic County’s Award-Winning Public High School for Academics, Careers & Technology”
45 Reinhardt Road, Wayne, New Jersey 07470 973-389-4202

PRESS RELEASE

Lincoln of Wayne “Driven to Give” PCTI Check for Scholarships

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE –Lincoln of Wayne awarded Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) with an eight thousand dollar check in light of the high school’s participation in their “Driven to Give” event, an initiative that exchanged faculty test drives for scholarship funds to benefit the instructional endeavors of teachers.

The initiative was spearheaded by PCTI’s Education Foundation which is known for going above and beyond in reaching out to regional, business, and community groups. Education Foundation President Al Alexander and Chief School Administrator Diana C. Lobosco accepted the donation from Lincoln of Wayne President, Peter Spina Sr. and the Client Relations team.

Since its inception nineteen years ago, PCTI’s Education Foundation has raised proceeds that exceed one million dollars!

Photo Caption: Rona Spina (Lincoln of Wayne Controller), Peter Spina Sr. (Lincoln of Wayne President), Nicole Tomko (Lincoln of Wayne Client Relations Director), and Robyn Depack (Lincoln of Wayne Client Relations Coordinator) join PCTI Chief School Administrator Diana C. Lobosco and PCTI Education Foundation President Al Alexander in delivering the “Driven to Give” event check that will benefit teacher scholarships at Passaic County Technical Institute.